

Recruiting Medical Students

Medical students (of any year level/country) are needed for a research project - Exploring Medical Student Perspectives of Family Violence Education

What does the research involve?

30 Minute Skype/Phone interview

addressing

- Student perspectives on family violence education
- Preferred teaching methods (content/delivery)
- Student opinion on the WHO pre-service guidelines

If you are interested in participating please contact the student researcher for more information –

Annabel Jones - asjon6@student.monash.edu

MONASH University